Dear Linda

I am increasingly concerned about the response to what is a matter of personal responsibility under the Code of Conduct. I note Owen has been excluded from this email. I accept his assurance he had no financial interest to declare on previous discussions or decisions on the application. I can't see how the Audit Chair has any powers to evidence beyond that.

There is an established procedure to take forward any potential breaches of the Code. I am concerned that perception may wrongly interpret some of these actions.

James
