

Postcard to the Park – the view from the National Park boundary

Description

The view from the National Park boundary on the bealach between Beinn Odhar and Beinn a'Chaisteil looking north down Glen Coralan, part of the Auch Estate. Photo Credit Jane Meek 14th May

Dear Loch Lomond and Trossachs National Park Authority,

What would the poet of these hills, Duncan Ban MacIntyre, who decried the destruction brought by sheep have thought of this?

My old OS map shows only the track on the right, the new tracks appear to have been created as part of one of the Auch hydro schemes. Your Renewables Policy Guidance talks about influencing windfarm location and design outwith the National Park boundary but say nothing about hydro developments beyond the boundary. Isn't it time you did so? Or are you worried other planning authorities might refer to the new network of tracks in Glen Falloch and Glen Dochart which you have approved and question what example you are setting as a National Park?

Category

1. Loch Lomond and Trossachs

Tags

1. hill tracks
2. LLTNPA
3. renewables

Date Created

July 25, 2017

Author

nickkempe

default watermark